

ADMITS MCCREARY CAN NOT BE HEADED

STRONG JOHNSON SUPPORTER CONCEDES STRENGTH OF MADISON MAN.

Robert H. Coffey has just returned from a several days' stay in Louisville, where he met a number of politicians from over the State at the Seelbach Hotel, and among them Rogers Gore, private Secretary to Congressman Ben Johnson, who is a candidate for governor. Mr. Coffey also met former Representative, W. D. Claybrooke, of Springfield, Washington county, in the heart of the Fourth Congressman Johnson's district. Mr. Claybrooke told him that while he was intensely for Johnson for anything that he might want and hoped to see him nominated for governor, still he had been over the State enough and felt the sentiment of Democrats sufficiently to know that if Senator James B. McCreary made the race for Governor, it would be all over with Johnson and all other candidates for Governor.

Close friends of Senator McCreary have known positively for some time that he will become a candidate, at the right time, but considers it a little too soon to make a flat-footed announcement at this time. Word came from Richmond Saturday, however, that Senator McCreary will return home today and formally open his headquarters; engage secretaries and stenographers and begin his active campaign. It is said that Senator McCreary will make visits all over the State for the purpose of meeting his host of former friends and meeting new ones, and getting in touch with the thousands who have been urging him to accept the leadership of the party again in the coming gubernatorial campaign.

JOHN Y. LEAVELL PASSES AWAY
SUDDENLY OF HEART DIS-EASE.—OTHER NEWS.

Lancaster, June 20.
Mr. John Y. Leavell, one of Garrard's most venerable citizens, died quite suddenly of heart disease Saturday night, at the home of his son, Mr. Ayers Leavell, near Point Leavell. Last March he celebrated his 93d birthday and then seemed in comparatively good health for a man of his age, and many were the good wishes expressed that he would live many years more.

Scarcely a year ago a favorite and dearly beloved daughter died, Mrs. Alex Doty, and this was a great blow to the aged father.

The burial was Monday afternoon in the Lancaster cemetery. The following children mourn his death: A. D. Leavell, Walker Leavell, Miss Belle Leavell, and Mrs. John Francis, of this city; Mrs. Robert Armstrong, of Frankfort; Mrs. Jasper Logie, of Eminburg, Indiana; and Mr. John Leavell, of Pecos, Texas.

The deceased was one of the organizers of the National Bank of Lancaster, and was its president from 1870 till 1872.

He was in the early days an old line Whig but being a southern sympathizer, has ever since the war been a staunch democrat. He was a man of remarkably well preserved physical and mental powers, and had the unusual distinction of having lived to see seven generations, having had distinct recollection of his great-grandfather and he himself having been a great grandchild.

ASKS WOMEN TO COME BARHEADED

EVANGELIST DANIEL PREACHING TO LARGE CROWDS AT BAP-TIST CHURCH.

Evangelist J. H. Daniel, of Texas, is preaching to large congregations daily and nightly at the Baptist church, where revival services are being held. Mr. Daniel is a speaker of power and filled with the word; and moreover is not afraid to say just what he thinks.

Before his sermon on Sunday morning, he requested all the ladies not to wear their hats to church. He said that he wanted to look everyone in the face and wanted all his hearers to see him; but that on account of large headgear of the women very few men could see him.

He also requests no one to tell him of any meanness that anyone in town is guilty of. He said he only wanted to know the good things of the people; but would like to know who the unconverted and non-church members were, so that he could personally pray for them. He declared in his sermon that he hoped God would save the people of Stanford from "the foul tongues that speak evil and slanders of their neighbors when they don't know what they're talking about."

He said that he wanted to meet everyone; go home with them; look them in the eyes across the dining table, and pat their dogs on the head. He took as his text Sunday morning "God so loved the world that he gave His only begotten Son that whosoever believed in Him should not perish but have everlasting life."

It is to be hoped the man under surveillance in Houston, Texas, is Joseph Wendling, the fiend who assaulted and murdered little Alma Keiser in Louisville last December. There does not seem to be a doubt that Wendling is the murderer, but is yet to be shown whether he has been located. If he has, and the people of Jefferson county allow the law to take its course, when he is returned to the scene of his hideous crime, it will show that they are law abiding to a certainty and that their patience has not yet ceased to be a virtue. We have never been an advocate of lynch law and do not favor it even now but if there ever was case fit for hanging without trial it is the one which now confronts the horror-stricken populace of Louisville and Jefferson county.

Editor Charles S. Harris of that good paper, The Adair County News, objects because some of the country editors criticize the brand of Louisville Democracy.

So far as we have noticed the only objections the country boys have mentioned are that a number of the Louisville democratic leaders are inclined to regard the party cloak as simply to be put on and off at their own pleasure, refusing to get into the band wagon unless they can do the driving. Witness Whallen's contribution to the Taft Campaign fund and Waterson and his henchmen's fight against Beckham for United States Senator. No critics have been found for the rank and file of the party in the fifth district, the trouble being that they are not always wise in the choice of leaders.

We hope, by the time this reaches our readers, to be enjoying the pleasure of the Kentucky Press Association meeting at Middlesboro. With our troubles in getting new machinery very installed and properly started, we believe that no one will begrudge us a few days rest. During our absence the paper will be in charge of Rowan Saufley.

In the congressional primary in the Sixth District Arthur B. House, of Boone county defeated former Congressman D. Linn Gooch for the Democratic nomination by about 3,993 majority. We enjoy a personal acquaintance with Mr. House, who is a splendid young man and a sterling democrat. The democrats of the Sixth have chosen wisely for a successor to Joe L. Rhinock.

Bowling Green is up to its neck in the hottest kind of prohibition fight. The city is now dry and will soon vote on the question as to whether it is better to sell it under license or through blind tigers. The way the law is enforced in most of the dry towns of the State, that's what the question really amounts to.

Roosevelt was given a royal ovation when he landed at New York on Saturday. He declared that he will not discuss politics for some time to come and any interviews purporting to come from him on the subject are fakes pure and simple.

Gov. Gillette, of California, is evidently trying to make himself as famous as the man who makes the safety razors. The latter's a good advertiser. Maybe they are akin.

An Expert's Opinion of Skin Diseases

A prominent, national expert on skin diseases whose name you are familiar with, says that in all his scientific experience he has never found so hard a disease to conquer as eczema. Yet he does not hesitate to recommend ZEMO as a most successful remedy for the treatment of Eczema, itching skin diseases, dandruff, pimples, blackheads and all other diseases of the skin and scalp. He says that not only do its curative qualities make it popular, but also the fact that it is a clean, liquid remedy for external use. A great improvement over the old style greasy salves and lotions which are not only unpleasant to use but do not destroy the germ life that causes the disease. ZEMO draws the germs to the surface and destroys them, leaving the skin clear and healthy. Can be used freely on infants. G. L. Penny will gladly supply those who call with a free sample bottle of ZEMO and a booklet which explains in simple language all about skin diseases and how to cure yourself at home with ZEMO.
